December's Letters

12/21/13 - 01/06/14

Opening Saturday December 21, dark-11pm

December 20, 2013

To the Press and Everyone:

The opening reception for December's Letters takes place tomorrow night, on the darkest day of the year (by 5:11pm). The reception features an exhibition of letters that have been written and mailed to the gallery in the past months, weeks, days and hours before the opening. December's Letters includes great works of writing and smaller snips, some hand penned, others typewritten, and all with enclosed goodies. Many friends contributed and passed the invitation along to their friends. These letters embody real personalities and narrate moments of truth so trill and very write. The distinct set of submissions, born out of a single theme – an invitation to 'air dirty socks' – offers variations, surprises and objects of humble adoration. Come join us as we sincerely celebrate our darkest hours.

Participants include:

Jesse Hlebo, Nicholas Shearer, Eli Skatvedt, Steven Cottingham, Nora Haydon, Julie Ann Nagle, James Sham II, Jon Lutz, Jennifer Lee, Mike Schonebaum, Brooke Olsen, Zachary Concepcion, E.
